Mt. Carmel News.

Well, we were visited by another fine rain Monday, but we are inclined to think that sunshine would have been more appropriate at this time. However, we will take it as it comes and try to be satisfied.

Little Arnold Fleming spent the latter part of last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Nightwine, south of Virginia.

W. M. Hardinger wrote insurance for the Bates County Mutual Insurance Company south of Amoret Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cox and daughter, Olive, of Porto Rico, Mo., came Saturday for a few days visit with their nephews, P. H. and W. E. Osborne and families.

Myrtle Fleming had her tonsils and adenoids taken out in Butler Saturday. She remained in Butler for a few days.

Mrs. Geo. R. Darnes came Tuesday of last week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Ison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Dick Martin and family north of Butler.

The Mt. Carmel Y. P. B. will give a social at the home of Robert McCann Friday night, June 23. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. L. A. Wheatley's mother and father of Butler spent Sunday with her.

Mrs. Tom Lewis and son and daughter, Dora, of near Amsterdam spent Friday with P. H. Osborne and family.

Mrs. N. A. Barr received word last week that her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Denning, at Topeka, Kansas, was the proud mother of a 9 pound girl.

Mt. Carmel Sunday School dismissed Sunday and we all went to Virginia for the township Sunday school convention at 9:30. We had a splendid union Sunday school of the four schools in the township. The Mt. Carmel, Olive Branch, Virginia Christian, and Virginia M. E. Schools were all present. At 11:00 Bro. Pfost preached on Union, Prayer and Love. At 12:00 came the interesting part for many. This was the basket dinner. At 1:30 the afternoon part began with the Devotional by Rev. Hughes. After this was made by the Olive Branch school. Next department work, conducted by Misses Nina Calver, Maggie and Myrtle McCann, Burdee Wolfe, Mrs. V. W. Walker and Mrs. Marion Hedger. Then music by the M. E. school. The next topic was, "What Can Sunday School Workers Do to Arouse More Interest in the Sunday School Work," by Ethelbert Hughes, Clade Jundy and W. W. Park. Next was music by the Christian school. The next subject discussed was, "Who is An Ideal Sunday School Worker," Mrs. J. W. Greenup, Mrs. J. G. Cuzick. Then music by the Mt. Carmel school. Prof. J. O. Henderson of Butler, the president of the Bates county Sunday school organization, gave us a splendid talk. We were favored by special music during the day as follows: duet, Misses Jewell Pfost and Margie Greenup; solo, Mr. Edward Greenup; duet, Misses Carmen Lusk and Margie Greenup. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Lee M. Hardinger, president; Jas. E. Park, vice president; Maggie McCann, secretary and treasurer; Myrtle McCann, elementary superintendent; Carry Henderson, home department superintendent; Mrs. W. M. Hardinger, organized class superintendent; Mrs. Marion Hedger, teacher training superintendent; Miss Burdee Wolfe, temperance superintendent; Mrs. J. W. Greenup, missionary superintendent.

Sunday being Wesley Osborne's 6th birthday his mother gave a dinner for him. Those present were: Lucile Wheatley, Hazel and Wm. Gish, Thelma, Jack and Buford Berry, Lillie Osborne, Cleo Simpson, Tom and Martha Day, Wm. and Christine Osborne. All enjoyed the day very much.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McKibben were seen riding in a new buggy Sunday.

UNCLE HENRY.

Scrawny Calves.

What makes a calf scrawny—off its feed? Germs—parasites—in the intestines. Why not free them of this trouble? If you will give the calf some B. A. Thomas Stock Remedy in its feed, within a week you will see it brighten up and in four or five weeks you won't know the calf. Costs but a few cents and we will refund that if it doesn't do as we say. C. G. Rhodes Pharmacy, 321 N. O'K. Hwy. Old Shawnee.

ON THE WING.

Born to the wife of Elmer Silvers a boy.

Geo. Chaney and family spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Fred Wishard in the Mt. Olive neighborhood.

Miss Florence Chaney spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Wishard. She will teach the Enterprise school the coming term, 7 miles southwest of Butler, Mo.

Ross Williams drives two of the nicest black teams in Lone Oak township. Mr. Williams can't hardly make it to town and back the same day for horse buyers and traders delaying him.

Grandma Corlett went to Kansas City last week to sing for Billy Sunday.

Grandma Jackson had quite a chase after her horse Sunday morning. Grandma took the bridle off of the horse and it broke for the road and pulled out. She followed it about a mile and led it back home.

Harlan Porter will hold a Holstein cattle sale in Amsterdam Saturday, June 24th. He has the stock and they will sell for him as a salesman.

Elmer Garner is shoving Grant Oldham's lines now a days when it is dry enough to plow.

Miss Maggie McCann will teach the Lost Corner school this winter.

There will be an ice cream supper at the Christian church next Tuesday night.

Aunt Amanda Durst is confined to her bed most all the time and is no better at this writing.

Charley Lamar was taken to Kansas City to be operated on for appendicitis last Saturday and was so low that they could not put him under the influence of medicine. They thought Sunday that he would not live long, but he is slowly improving.

The township convention was held at the M. E. church at Virginia last Sunday. The day was opened by Sunday school at 9:30, after which Elder Pfost made a very impressive talk. Dinner was the next thing. The table was loaded with all sorts of good things to eat and everyone was invited to partake. It was certainly a place for old batchelors to get good eating. At 1:30 o'clock Rev. Ethelbert Hughes made an excellent devotional address. Next was a song by the Olive Branch or Crooks Sunday school. Miss Nina Culver, of Butler, made a fine talk on department work.

Next there was a song by the M. E. Sunday school. 2:25 was given to the superintendents of the Sunday schools. Rev. Hughes was the first speaker to speak on this subject, after which the president, Lee Hardinger, changed the program by singing a song to rest the large audience which was suffering from the extreme heat. W. W. Park, Clade Jundy and Mr. Barr all made splendid talks. Misses Carmen Lusk and Margie Greenup sang a duet which was appreciated by the audience. 2:40 song by the Christian church Sunday school. 2:45 Mrs. T. W. Greenup and Mrs. T. G. Cuzick made talks on "Who is the Ideal Sunday School Worker." We don't believe there are any better Sunday school workers in the township than these two ladies. Their work shows that they are ideal Sunday school workers. Next was a song by the Mt. Carmel Sunday school. There was a talk by a county officer, but we lost his name. He gave a good outline to the teachers of the township.

The writer of "On the Wing" was in error last week when it was stated that there would be an all day meeting and basket dinner at New Hope church Sunday, the 25th. We were misinformed.
